HUNT'S.

Corunna Commandery Knights Templar, will attend service at the Baptist church, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Sermon by Sir Knight Rev. W. B. Matteson. The public generally is invited to be present.

E. A. Todd returned from Oklahoma, Thursday evening of last week. While there he discovered a silver mine, which he sold at a fine profit. He expects to return soon and make further search in hopes of locating a gold mine.

THE TIMES does not take any stock in the report that the Ann Arbor division is to be removed from Durand to Alma. As long as Owosso can't have the division we are perfectly satisfied to see it remain in Durand and hope there will be no change.

The Kimmis bill, doing away with the payment of any fees to county officials and paying instead a salary, passed the house Tuesday by a vote of 79 to 12. It is thought that the vote in the senate will be very close.

All of the Owosso and Corunna students at the University are expected home today or tomorrow for a week's vacation. The lateness of Easter has made the term a long one—fifteen weeks—and the students have had a long and hard siege of work.

Durand Express: The marriage of J. C. Obert and Miss Jennie Leland, both of Durand, occurred Tuesday at Detroit, Mich. Both parties are from our most estimable young people, Mr. Obert being the head of the well known dry goods firm of Obert Bros. and Miss Leland one of our most accomplished young ladies.

The Wesener orchestra Easter ball will be held in the armory next Tuesday evening, and indications point to a very pleasant party. A number of couples from other places are expected to be present and an unusually fine program of dances has been prepared. The society people of the city should make it a social and financial success.

The State Telephone Co. had instruments placed in the council room and Exchange hotel, Monday, to give the aldermen and others interested, an idea how finely their instruments work. The outlook is more favorable each day for the immediate construction of the line. The council will undoubtedly grant a franchise at an early date.

Beach W. Cramer by S. S. Miner, sues for divorce from Feba J. Cramer, on the ground of desertion, claiming that they were married in 1890, at Fenton, the trouble arising from the fact that his wife is an Adventist and refused to live with him unless he observed Saturday for Sunday and joined her church.

Judging from the printed program and knowing the excellence of the work done by the Congregational choir, under the leadership of A. E. Ferry, we feel perfectly secure in saying that the musical program prepared for the Easter services next Sunday morning and evening, is equal to anything ever arranged in the city.

Miss Mary Henderson will open a kindergarten next Monday in the house at the northeast corner of Williams and Pine Sts. One session a day will be held, beginning at 9 o'clock and continuing until 11:30 a. m. Tuition will be $1.50 for one and $2.00 a month for two if from the same family. Miss Henderson is so successful and well known in this work that any extended notice is unnecessary.

A house on Chipman street, south, was discovered to be on fire, Monday evening, at 10 o'clock, which the fire department quickly extinguished. Later in the night a second alarm was turned in and the same house was found to be on fire. It was quickly burned to the ground with all the contents. The house was owned by Henry Hickey and occupied by his son, Otto and his family, who had been away during the evening. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Rev. L. W. Spayd entertained the ministerial association at its monthly meeting Monday, with a paper on the "Baptism of the Holy Spirit." It was highly appreciated by those present, there being from out of the city Rev. A. Metcalf, Bancroft; Rev. L. H. Dunning, Durand; Rev. Davidson, Vernon; Rev. R. V. Barnum, Morris; Rev. T. Mott, Corunna; Rev. Gordon, Henderson; Rev. McCarthy, Easton; Rev. F. A. Stevens, Vernon. The next meeting will be held May 10th, when Rev. W. B. Matteson will read a paper.

Lydia A. Scribner, of Antrim township, by her attorneys, Kilpatrick & Pierpont, has commenced suit for divorce from Wayland Scribner, one of the well known and successful farmers of the county. Mrs. Scribner claims that they were married in 1888, have six children, all living, and have accumulated property worth $40,000; that the defendant has constantly left home, taking her with him but once in twelve years; that he refuses to allow her relatives to visit him; that she has been maltreated in almost every conceivable way, her children clubbed and her daughters made to do a man's work at 15 years of age, and has otherwise made it impossible for her or the children to live with him.
